To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing today to provide a reference for Jake DuVall-Early.

It has been my pleasure to work with and observe Jake in a variety of settings. On two occasions I have appeared in films that he has directed; on another occasion I have employed him as a camera operator; I have also had an opportunity to watch him in multiple theatrical settings, where he was either acting in or directing plays and musicals.

I have found him to be a hard worker who works well with others. He has great artistic vision, and a collaborative style that makes everyone feel as if they are part of the creative process. He is organized and efficient, and well prepared for rehearsals and movie shoots.

One of Jake's greatest strengths is that he interacts well with people of all ages and backgrounds. He is equally adept at leading peers or those much older, and I'm certain that he would be comfortable working anyone, in just about any setting.

Jake possesses a unique blend of talent, creativity and passion, and his abilities would be an asset for any arts organization. I'm pleased to give him my unqualified endorsement and I recommend him to you without reservation.

I'm pleased to answer any questions you may have, and can be reached at 301-509-1445 if you would like additional information.

Warmest Regards,
